Foodbarn premium wines

Made for us by our talented friends...

*Foodbarn 8 grams MCC Rosé NV 380 / 77(flute)

Made by John Loubser at Silverthorn

Traditionally, Rosé Champagne is made from two red varieties, namely Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier. With Foodbarn 8G we broke the rules, we opted for something far more daring and exotic, and used Shiraz, an ancient grape variety, originating from Persia.

*Foodbarn "Southerner" Blanc Fumé 576/192/75

Made by Trizanne Barnard

"Southerner" encapsulates perfectly the feel of this premium Sauvignon Blanc and the person behind it... Made by my Uber talented friend Trizanne Barnard who for the past 20 years has been playing with the various expressions of this varietal.

2023 was particularly exciting as for the 1st time this Elim Blanc Fumé was bottled, bringing a new element of surprise to the table.

*Foodbarn "KUSTARD PIE" 576/192/75

Made by Ken Forrester

smooth like custard...is what went through my mind when i first tasted this barrel...this single vineyard chenin comes from the K block near the old riverbed on Ken Forrester's farm...first laid out in 1922, Ken replanted the new vines on those wise old roots in 1998. The result is a hugely polished wine with honey notes & a lingering citrus aftertaste

*Foodbarn "STRAWBERRY PIE" 576/192/75

Made by Ken Forrester

(grenache 60%, shiraz 32%, mourvedre 8%)

The Piekenierskloof Grenache in this blend was planted at 650m surrounded by rooibos & ancient rocky outcrops, looking down towards the cold Atlantic.

Wild strawberry fruit & lean tannins show power and elegance.

*Foodbarn "Sang de Terre" 576/192/75

Made by Thierry Haberer

(grenache, shiraz)

This soulful wine is made by my Corsican friend Thierry Haberer. Like all people who truly understand the terroir, Thierry manages to extract

the true essence of the soil in this intense, fruit forward, delicious wine... blood of soil... sang de terre.

Made by Roger Burton at Tierhoek

Award-winning wine writer and judge Malu Lambert shares her hot picks:

My friend Malu is not just an award winning wine writer. She lives wine like a poet lives love, she smells, tastes & drinks with abandon, she analyses with knowledge and delivers her verdict with wisdom and kindness.

Daschbosch Verdelho Méthode Ancestrale-280

Sunburst limes, the radiant green of a forest, washing in as refreshing as filtered sunlight. Made with the ancient technique of Méthode Ancestrale of one continuous ferment in a bottle. Just enough biscuity-lees contact laces up the punchy fruit for a salty, green apple-kissed finish.

Catherine Marshall Riesling 2023-240

From two Elgin sites. I can imagine winemaker Cathy Marshall swooping through these vineyards with a butterfly net, scooping in cool, limpid sunshine, limes, green peaches and a richer undercurrent of pear. The tension on the palate acts as ballast to the sweet-fruited core.

Daniel Colombo Muscat d’Alexandrie 2023 (DRY)-380

From a Skurfberg vineyard planted around 1940. Wild white flowers, alpine fynbos, honey mixed with rainwater. The fruit is monastic, as if carved from stone, crumbling with moss - an earthy undertone to buoy white peach, tangs of lime-leaf, riven with a cool salinity.

Restless River Ava Marie 2021-924

As white Burgundy becomes out of reach to most pockets, South Africa bridges this gap ... Chablis-esque with aromas of wet chalkboard, crushed stones and white blossoms, and hint of oatmeal wooliness. Harvesting takes place over three weeks to build complexity. It's a textural wine defined by flinty tension.

Natte Valleij Stellenbosch Cinsault 2022-421

Cinsault virtuoso Alex Milner has a profound adeptness with this heritage grape. From a Stellenbosch site he's coaxed out opulent florals, the scent of fat black roses and violets spilling across granite, heady yet elegant. Gentle vinification for dark, soothing fruit and zesty piquancy.

Kanonkop Cabernet Sauvignon 2019-781

I nominated this wine as my Classic choice for Decanter's 2023 Wines of the Year. It won! Beating out every other entry around the globe. Go South Africa! An enchanting, layered wine with pencil shavings, flint, dried riverbed, cassis and a lift of mint. Black fruits peel away on the palate: cherries, plums and blackcurrants, all neatly cosseted in wood spice and granular tannins.
